NEW ELP COURSE BEING OFFERED FALL 2015!

STATE AND INSTITUTIONAL GOVERNANCE IN HIGHER EDUCATION
WITH DR. DAVID L. BUHLER AND DR. STEPHEN D. NADAULD

The purpose of this seminar is to examine the purposes, functions, current issues, and practical perspectives related to state and institutional higher education governance. The seminar will be taught by higher education leaders and include several guest speakers and participants.

Dr. David Buhler has a PhD from the University of Utah, is a former state senator, has been associate commissioner of higher education, and is currently serving as Utah State commissioner of Higher Education. As commissioner he is responsible for making recommendations to, and implementing the policies of, the state board of regents.

Dr. Stephen Nadauld has an MBA from Harvard Business School and a PhD from UC-Berkeley. He has been a professor of finance and director of BYU’s MBA program. He has been CEO of Intermountain Milk Producers, President of Weber State University, and most recently, President of Dixie State University.

Fall Semester 2015
Thursdays, 4:35 to 7:05 pm, MBH 104

Contact Marilynn Howard to register: marilynn.howard@utah.edu or 801-581-6714

Topics:

Leadership
Fundraising
Governance Structure
Accreditation and Accountability

POSSIBLE GUEST PARTICIPANTS
*Governor Gary Herbert
*President David Pershing
*Dan Campbell, chairman of the Board of Regents
*Steve Urquhart, state senator and co-chairman of the higher education committee
*Ann Milner, former Weber State President and current state senator