ADMISSION INFORMATION

An applicant for admission to the Graduate School must meet the following minimum requirements:

- An undergraduate GPA of at least 3.0.
- A bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited college or university.

Specifics to ELP Department Admission Information

1. Application. An online Apply Yourself (AY) application form is to be completed by April 15. The application form requires contact information as well as information about the applicant’s educational and professional history. In addition, applicants are asked to submit a written Statement of Intent and an Essay, using the instructions below. These written samples provide evidence of the applicant’s professional commitment to educational leadership and their existing experiences in leadership positions.

2. Statement of Purpose: What are your professional goals, and what is the role of this program in helping you achieve them? What impact have you made thus far in your career as an educator? What further contributions do you plan to make to the field of education after completing this program? Please limit your response to 250 words or less.

3. Writing Sample: The Educational Leadership and Policy Department places a strong emphasis on preparing future school leaders in transforming urban schools. Describe a situation where you have demonstrated leadership as an educator that furthered access, equity and diversity within schools. Be specific about the skills you utilized, the challenges you met, and the growth you experienced. Please limit your response to 500 words or less.

4. Resume. In addition to the application form, applicants are asked to submit a resume that further outlines their educational and professional history, particularly as it relates to leadership experiences (e.g., experiences as department chairs, committee chairs, specialist assignments, professional development leaders/trainers, etc.).

5. Recommendation Forms. Three recommendations are required from: a current supervisor, a previous supervisor, and a colleague, or other individual with knowledge of the applicant’s leadership potential.

6. Most current copy of an educator evaluation.

NO GRE REQUIRED!

Screening Interview (for selected applicants only). Selected applicants will be invited to an additional screening activity that includes a combination of individual and group activities.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: April 15th
